

Opera Queensland - Hansel and Gretel

28 July 2017

Dear parents and caregivers,

We are very excited about the Shake and Stir Theatre Company production of Hansel and Gretel that will be coming to our school on Monday, September 11 (Week 10).

OperaQ's Open Stage school programs are developed by a team of highly skilled and experienced education specialists, teaching artists and registered educators.

Through school and community workshops, touring productions and collaboration with local arts companies, Open Stage gives Queenslanders from all walks of life the opportunity to experience opera and self-expression through performance.

The production is suitable for students from Prep to Year 6 and they will be performing three shows on the day for different target audiences.

Tickets are $9 per student, and you will receive an invoice soon.
